

Satellite radio is providing an excellent service to those of us who:1. travel widely and like the predictability of programming
2. travel to cities wher continuous traffic and weather is a great help
3. very much feel that the current quality of much of over the air stations is disgraceful, bad programming and continious commercials make it unlistenable.
THANKS FOR DEREGULATION! Don't screw this up.
Francis Devlin